Campus Leaders, Huffman And Blackburn

While attending the National Student Convention in Washington, D.C., Lyle Blackburn and Chuck Huffman had the opportunity to meet with Congressman Carl D. Perkins (top left) in his office at the Capitol.

Chuck and Lyle got off to a slow start when trying to meet a train for Washington, D.C., when Chuck's car burned to the ground (right) just outside of Paintsville.

Attend Washington, D.C. Conference

Two students from Pikeville College, Chuck Huffman and Lyle Blackburn, attended the National Student Convention, July 25-29, in Washington, D.C. Huffman is president of the college's Student Government Association, and Blackburn vice president.

The American Student Association is a national alliance of over 500 college and university student associations in all 50 states. ASA is dedicated to improving the effectiveness and professionalism of our nation's student leadership. ASA membership benefits include membership directory, special reports, newsletters, 24-hour legislative hotline, discounts on conferences, Washington, D.C. internships, and ASA lobbying efforts on Capitol Hill.

The convention not only included many professional speakers such as the Rev. Jesse Jackson, Wilbur Mills speaking on alcoholism, workshops, and materials, but also an evening welcoming reception, Washington, D.C. sight-seeing, and an opportunity to vote on resolutions establishing American Student Association's national educational legislative direction. Elections for the National Board of Directors and the President of ASA also took place at the convention.

The primary purpose of the convention was to present an opportunity to exchange ideas and experiences with student leaders from across the nation.

Various topics discussed during workshop sessions were: STUDENT SENATE-suggestions on how to organize an effective student senate; LEGISLATIVE PROCESS/LOBBYING TECHNIQUES-understanding the National Legis-Process: How you can be a successful student lobbyist on the state and national level; MANAGEMENT/PLANNING-helping student leaders to develop skill in working with small task groups; INCIDENTAL/ACTIVITY FEES-sound budgeting techniques for your student association; COLLECTIVE BARGAINING-how to obtain student representation on your institutions collective bargaining panel, and LOW TUITION-how to fight tuition hikes on campus.

Chuck and Lyle had the opportunity to meet with Congressman Carl D. Perkins in his office and talked about how over-regulation of the coal business has hurt the economy and therefore, has hurt Pikeville College.

Chuck stated that "40 percent of Pikeville College's income is from gifts. It follows that when coal is down the economy is down, and subsequently, the gifts to the college are down."

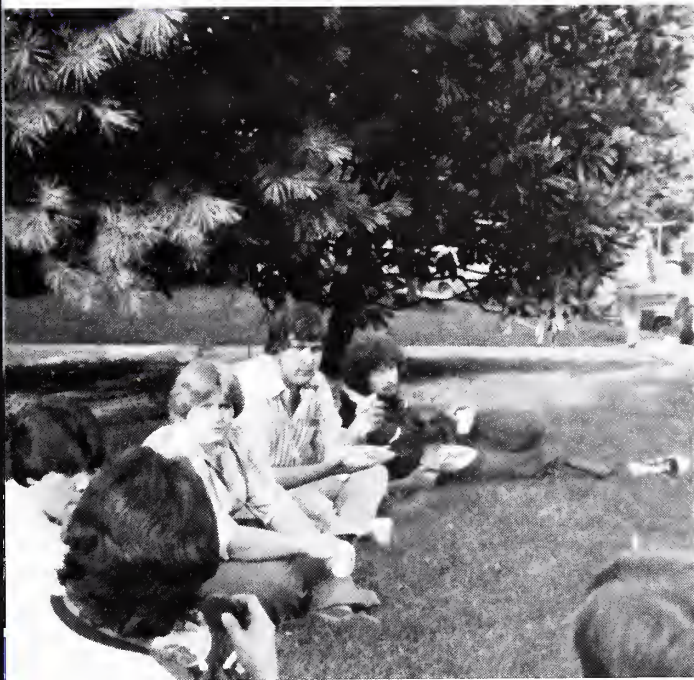

The possibility of funding a coal gasification plant somewhere in the area of Pikeville was discussed during the meeting with Congressman Perkins.

Lyle summed up his feelings of the convention, "I believe the convention has given Chuck and I a better insight on how we can better serve the students at Pikeville College. This is our goal, to meet the needs of the students."

Student Government

The Pikeville College Student Government Association hosted a week of activities for incoming freshmen during FRESHMEN ORIENTATION WEEK and another week of activities throughout the first week of school for all students.

An information booth (right) was set up in the faculty parking lot behind Derianna with Pepsi co-sponsoring. Freshman Steve Prater from Paintsville found out that the booth was quite helpful in locating various points of interest. Everyone enjoyed the picnic (bottom) welcoming all students to Pikeville College.

Welcomes Back Students

The popular MAJIC band from Pikeville (left) welcomed back all students with a dance in the college gymnasium.

Registration (bottom left) in the gym was a hectic day for everyone. Enrollment statistics for the 1980 fall term were somewhat interesting as compared with last year's. Liberal Arts admissions reached 411 full-time students as opposed to 379 in 1979. The Mining Technology Department had an enrollment of 105 full-time students and 10 part-time students for a total of 115.

The total count, 516 full-time students and 105 part-time students, was 621 which was higher than last year's head count of 598.

Junior Sharon Cantrell (bottom right) participated in roller skating at the Blue Goose during the first week back to school. She also discovered the consequences. Student turn-out for the activity was quite favorable so the Student Government sponsored the activity more throughout the term.

Students Enjoy Activities . . . Magic, Intramurals,

A Halloween treat for Pikeville College students and faculty was the magic of Bill Clary. He spent the entire day at the college performing his tricks before putting on an extensive show that evening in Faith Chapel. Students (right) were amazed by his talent as Clary performed one of his tricks during lunch hour in the cafeteria.

Initiations And Finally-A Moment Of Rest

"Could this be PC Bear basketball co-captain David Rowe?" Underneath the silk panty hose, short dress, make-up, and jewelry can be found that athletic ballplayer (left) we've all admired on the round ball court. Davis was one of fifteen guys on campus being initiated into the Circle-K Club. Pin ball wizards Jeff Hershner and Lanny Damron (below) were only two of Pikeville College's students enthralled by the machines in the Bear's Den.

Homecoming Celebration Of 1980 Queen

THE DAZZLE BOYS (right) from Roanoke, Va., entertained Pikeville College students, faculty, and alumni at a dance in the Blue Goose during the college's twenty-eighth Homecoming celebration Friday night, Dec. 12. The dance began at 8 p.m. and lasted until midnight.

Jim Anderson, a 1976 graduate of Pikeville College with a B.A. in music education, plays bass guitar for the group. He adds backing vocals and writes and arranges much of the band's material. While in Ky., he played with regional groups before moving to Virginia to become a member of THE DAZZLE BOYS.

Other members of the group are Chris Keaton, lead singer and frontman; Mack Crawford, drummer; Brian Wheeling, lead guitarist; Wayne Foutz, guitarist.

Highlighted By Crowning At Dance

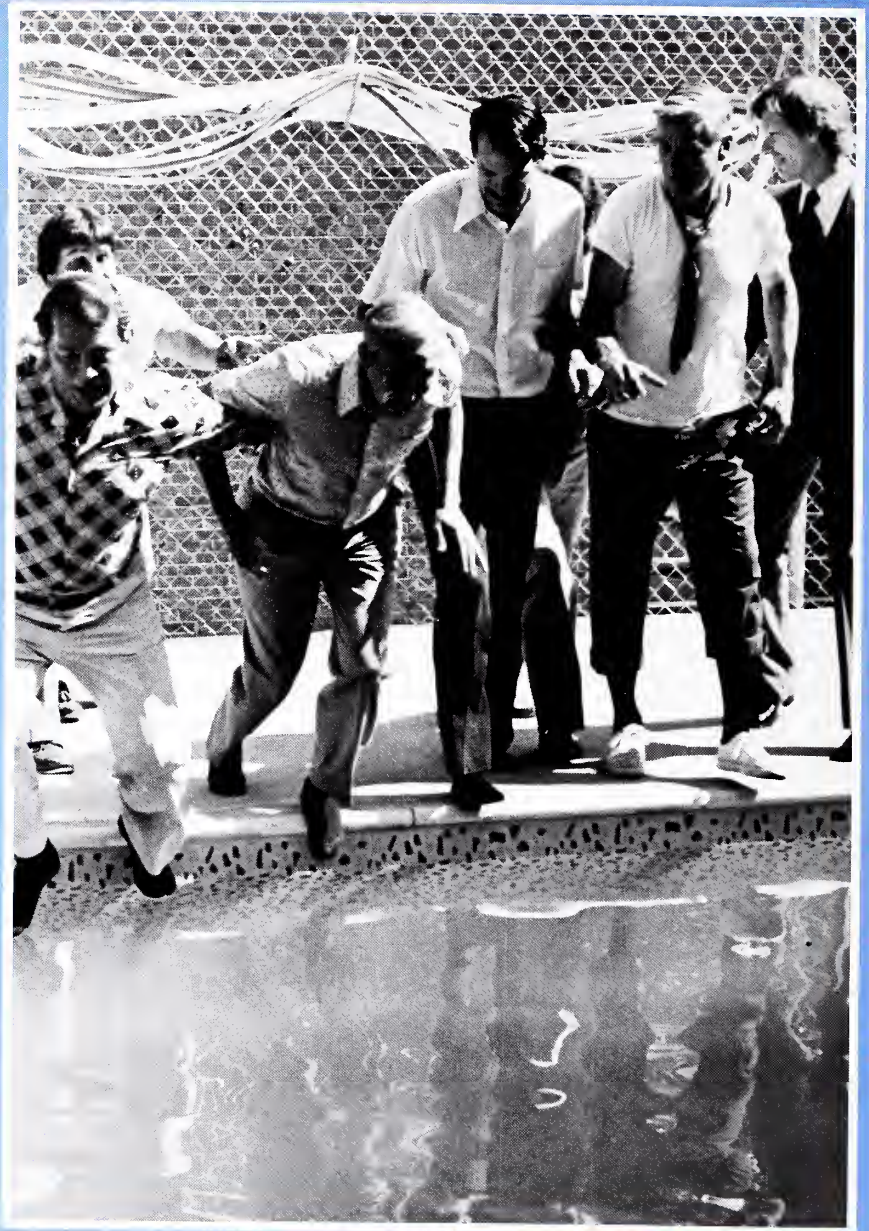

Homecoming at Pikeville College has been an annual event since 1952. The tradition was carried through yet another year as the college's celebration began with a dance on Friday night, Dec. 12. Midway through the dance, the court was presented and the 1980 queen, senior Susan Allen, was crowned. She was escorted by Chuck Huffman (left). President Hall was ready to congratulate both (below) after presenting Susan with a dozen roses.

Contrary to tradition, the queen was crowned at the dance instead of the basketball game. Also, for the first time, the dance was held the night before the game. This change in tradition went over tremendously as approximately 150 people attended the dance, one of the largest crowds ever. Couples, from left to right, Gary Lovely and Lynn Allen, Grady Coleman and Sandy Bowling, David Farmer and Bev Davis, Carolyn Salisbury and Mickey Martin (left) took time out from dancing to share a quiet moment.

Swimming Pool Dedication A Big Splash

"On behalf of the Board, I dedicate this pool to the students of Pikeville College," President Jackson O. Hall stated to a crowd of students and faculty during the dedication ceremony of the new swimming pool located between the Harmon Alumni House and Condit Hall.

President Hall, student photographer Mike Blackburn, and Kenny Cox (left) discussed the president's less than formal attire before the ceremony began.

As Dr. Hall awaited his dedication address to a crowd of onlookers (top), he had a few moments to discuss the event with other special guests.

Dr. Frits (middle) topped off the ceremony with a dive from the board in a freshly pressed, neatly tailored, three-piece suit.

The swimming pool became a reality when construction (bottom) finally got underway. Students and faculty both have enjoyed the facility.

Spring Fever Takes Over At PC

Spring fever took over quite a few Pikeville College students and subsequently, they were doing wild and crazy things. Mitzi Adkins and Melissa Johnson danced a jig (top right) with Pikey, PC's mascot. Kevin Stumbo (top Left) borrowed a trumpet and blew out a tune much to Lyle Blackburn's dismay. Tammy Vance thought it was all quite funny. Steve Johnson, Jeff "Frog" Ford, and Rhonda Barnett (right) ALWAYS act crazy!

Students Involved In Various

"The Nutcracker" In It's

Pikeville College's production of the Christmas ballet "The Nutcracker" premiered Friday, Dec. 5 in Faith Chapel. It was presented by the continuing education department of the college in cooperation with the community, involving more than 100 people, and directed and choreographed by Peggy Davis and Claire Olson. Tchaikovsky's "The Nutcracker" was in its second year of production.

In the opening portion of the ballet (right) a party was held in the home of Frau and Herr Von Stahlbaum, played by Susan Allen and Stuart Lear.

Sara Elliott, as Clara (bottom), led her friends in a dance after Grossvater presented all the children with gifts.

The Nutcracker, played by Steve Collier (opposite page, top), led his army of soldiers in an attack against the mice and the Mouse King.

During Act II Clara and the prince are seated on a throne made of cake and candy, and are entertained by a succession of divertissements, representing various confections. After a finale (opposite page, bottom) involving the whole court, Clara and the prince bid a farewell to the Kingdom of the Sweets.

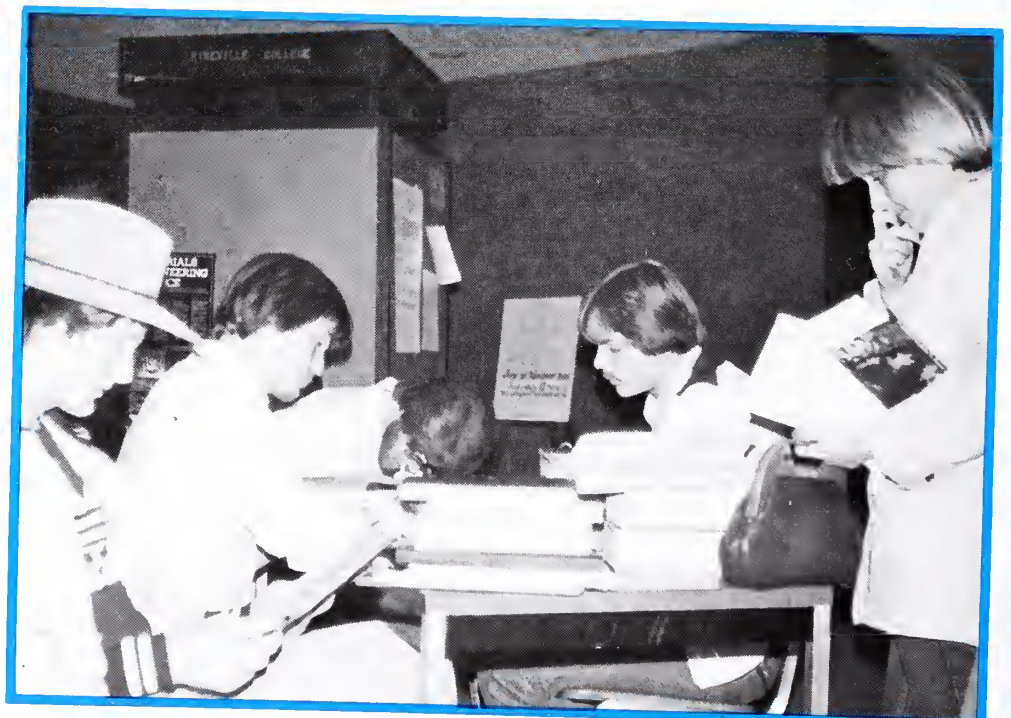

Second Year Of Production

Students Study . . . And Then Have Fun

FACULTY

The Man Of The Hour-Dr. Jackson O. Hall,

Dr. Jackson O. Hall (bottom) came to Pikeville College in 1975. Since that time he has guided the college through a disastrous flood in 1977, two stifling winters in 1977 and 1978, along with several other upheavals. The restoration of the new gymnasium in December 1979 was due in large part to his continuous dedication to the college.

Dr. Hall attended Dartmouth College in Hanover, New Hampshire, and received his doctorate from Cornell University in 1967.

During commencement exercises (opposite page, top) Dr. Hall made a challenge to all graduates to "stand tall, continue learning, exemplify courage in your daily life, and to follow the teaching of our Lord, Jesus Christ . . ."

President

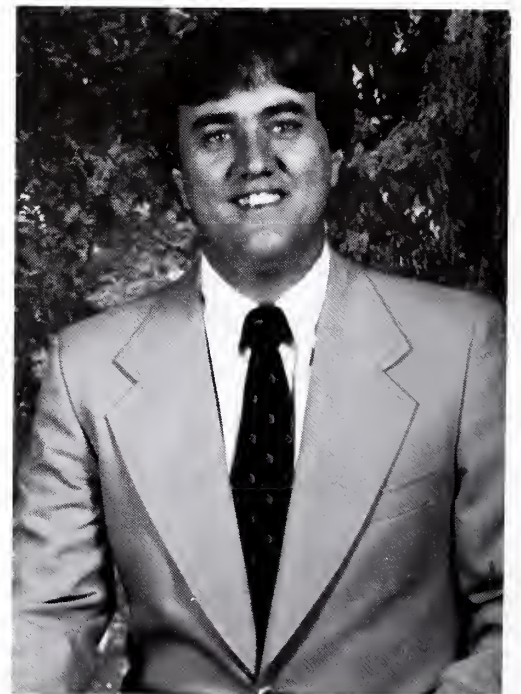

PC Administration Are

Dr. Fritz (bottom left) was one of several members of the administration to give blood during the Bloodmobile Drive at Pikeville College.

CHUCK DAMRON
Assistant Dean Of Admissions

Vital To College's Success

Susan Tavis (left) was appointed public relations director at Pikeville College April 1 after the resignation of Lee Shaw. She earned a bachelor's degree in elementary education with an area in preschool from Pikeville College in 1975, and then earned her master's degree in elementary education from Morehead State University in 1976. Before coming to the college in 1980 as assistant director for the Center for Continuing Education, Susan was advertising manager for the Appalachian News-Express and the Eastern Kentucky Shopper from May 1979 until December 1980.

President Jackson O. Hall, Lt. Gov. Collins, and Jarrett M. Wood (top) found a moment to share a smile before the luncheon in the Gold Room honoring Collins.

Both Jarrett Wood and Lt. Gov. Collins (right) received honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degrees from Pikeville College during Founder's Day Convocation.

Wood served as chairman of the college's board of trustees from 1973-77. Wood is a past president of the Pike County Chamber of Commerce and past director of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce.

Collins, a Shelby County native, attended the University of Kentucky and graduated in 1959 with a B.S. in home economics. That same year she was elected Ky. Derby Festival Queen. Since taking office as Lt. Gov. in January 1980, Collins has been appointed by Executive Order to membership on the Governor's Executive Cabinet, a first in Kentucky history for a Lt. Gov.

91st Founder's Day Convocation

Speaking on the future of private institutions of higher education, Lt. Governor Martha Layne Collins (top left) addressed the annual Founder's Day Convocation at Pikeville College Thursday, October 9, at 2:00 p.m. in Faith Chapel.

"The future of Pikeville College ensures that the future of Eastern Kentucky will grow," Lt. Gov. Collins stated in her address during the college's 91st Founder's Day Convocation.

Collins pointed out that the college is in a unique position to realize its future and be a guideline to higher education because it is a private institution rather than state-supported.

Lt. Gov. Collins discussed the day's activities with SGA President Chuck Huffman (top right) before a luncheon in her honor in the Gold Room.

Bearwalk Initiates 1980

Initiating Founder's Day activities was a Bearwalk Saturday, October 4, beginning at 9:00 a.m. Co-sponsored by the Alumni Association and the Student Government Association, the Bearwalk's purpose was to raise money for student scholarships, with a total goal set at $10,000.

All participants had to have at least 10 sponsors pledging anywhere from 10¢ to $1,000 per mile. Anyone could participate—students, faculty, staff, alumni or friends of the college. The Bearwalk began at the Harmon Alumni House on Sycamore Street. Sandy Branam (right) registered participants as they arrived.

Lyle Blackburn (bottom), vice president of the Student Government Association, presided during the traditional flag ceremony beginning Founder's Day, Thursday, October 9, 1980. He was assisted by members of Marching Corps of Pikeville High School.

Founder's Day Activities

Susan Allen and Bev Davis (top left) were participants in the shopping cart races, one of the many scheduled activities for Founder's Day. The shopping cart teams, consisting of two members each, began their trek at one end of Hellier Street and raced to the other end, returning to the starting point to finish. The $25 first place prize was claimed by Roy Johnson and Steve Keene with the $15 second place prize going to Karen Dotson and Nelda McQueen. The 99 Step Dash was just one of many activities that took place throughout the week. Andy Newsome (top right) was the first place finisher of the grueling race with a time of 0:12.62.

A presentation entitled "Russia's Secret Doomsday Weapons, World War III and You" by Peter James (left), ex-CIA agent, highlighted Thursday's activities. The lecture began at 8 p.m. in Faith Chapel.

James was a rocket engineer for United Technologies' Florida Research and Development Center in West Palm Beach for nine years. He was coordinator of the company's foreign technology program for three years, until 1971, when he was fired after he made it clear that he would write several books to protect the public's right to know.

He was the first intelligence analyst to document work on a Soviet space shuttle program. This analysis is contained in an 800-page secret intelligence report which was requested by the Executive Office of the President.

The traditional canoe race began its route behind the mini-park at Pikeville High School at 4:00 p.m. on Thursday. The re-routing of the Levisa Fork of the Big Sandy River through the Cut-Through posed an initial doubt as to whether the canoe race would be on; however, no degree of problem seemed to threaten this traditional event. The Mining Technology team finished first with a 22:21 time. Mitch Blankenship and Tony Howard (right) rowed the winning canoe down stream to meet their teammates as onlookers (top) cheered them on.

Accepting a challenge to a football game from SGA President Chuck Huffman on behalf of the student body, the administration, faculty, staff and alumni (bottom) prepared their strategy before game time. The game was played Friday, October 9 in Middle Bowles Addition.

A dance featuring Apocrypha (left) closed out the Founder's Day activities on Friday, October 10, from 8 p.m. until midnight in the college gym. Steve Johnson and Debbie Newsome (bottom) moved to the beat of the music.

Chuck Huffman issued a challenge on behalf of the students in the September 26 issue of the school newspaper THE RECORD. An excerpt reads as follows: "We, the Students of Pikeville College, in order to demonstrate our superior intelligence, quicker reaction time, unrelenting pursuit of embarrassing our elders, and astounding physical endurance, hereby issue a direct Challenge to the Faculty, Administration, and Alumni (we have to let them use Alumni or they won't play us!!) to a football game at 2:30 p.m. Friday, October 10 at a specified location to be named at a later date. I suggest that our opponents check to see if their Blue Cross is paid up, their Darvon prescription refilled, and get permission from their wives to play. If they can muster their courage long enough to issue a reply to this challenge, I suggest they respond by a letter to "THE RECORD." The faculty went ahead to beat the students 14-13.

Meadowlark Lemon Presents The

Bucketeers To A Packed-House

Meadowlark Lemon, the clown-prince of basketball and a former Harlem Globetrotter, unveiled his group of comedy players to a packed-house at the Pikeville College gymnasium on February 9.

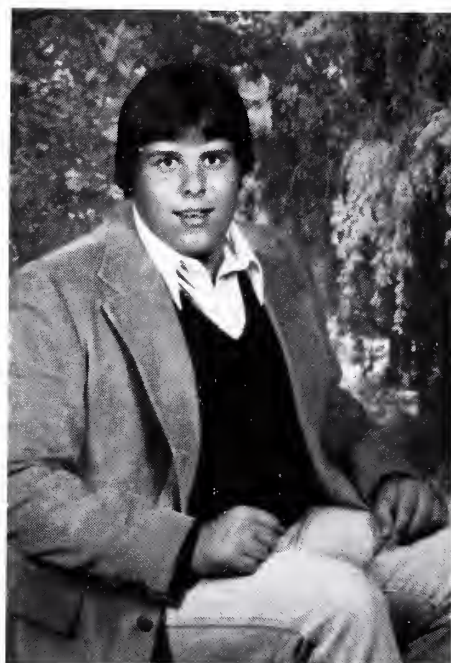

Sponsored by the Student Government Association, the event featured such Globetrotter legends as Marques Haynes, Jerry "Love Bug" Venable, and "Jumping" Jackie Jackson. Other Bucketeer teammates are Derek "Iceberg" Murphy, Louie "Dynamite" Nelson, Tommy "Cochise" Brown, Ira Terrell, Allen "Blue Eyes" Winder, Bruce "The Kid" Smith, Ron "Teddy Bear" Knight, Clint Chapman, Willie "Sky" Foreman, and Meadowlark Lemon.

Peach Orchard Players' Production Of

"No Exit" Is A Success

The Peach Orchard Players' spring production of Jean-Paul Sartre's "No Exit" was a big success with approximately 250 people attending performances on March 18 and 19 in Faith Chapel.

The play's theme, "Hell is . . . other people!", expressed Sartre's belief that man's responsibility for his own actions led him to his own anguish. It presented a refreshing point of view and attempted to picture Hell as no one had before.

Student Body Elects

The Pikeville College Student Government Association celebrated the beginning of spring with its annual Spring Formal dance on Friday, April 10, at the Top of the Holiday Inn. The FANATICS (page 89, top) from Lexington, Ky., entertained PC students, faculty, administration, and alumni from 8 p.m. until midnight. Free bowling followed at the Star-Lite Bowling Lanes until 4 a.m.

Highlighting the Spring Formal was the presentation of the 1981 Spring Court and the crowning of the queen, voted on by the student body, by last year's queen, Susan Allen.

BRENDA HAMILTON (right), a 20-year-old Math major from Beaver, Ky., was named Spring Queen. Brenda was also a member of the homecoming court. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hamilton, and was escorted by Robert Newsome.

An ice cream party began the festivities on Tuesday evening, April 7, at 5:30 p.m. in the Bears Den.

HOMECOMING

1980 Homecoming Festivities

A perfect, sunny day set the scene for a successful homecoming celebration with a parade through downtown Pikeville on Saturday, Dec. 13. SUSAN ALLEN (right), a twenty-one year old senior English major, was crowned the 1980 Homecoming Queen, and was presented with her court in the parade. Susan was captain of the cheerleading squad, co-editor of the yearbook, and SGA secretary. The Belfry High School Marching Band (below) placed first in parade competition. They also received BEST DRUM MAJOR and BEST AUXILIARY CORP.

A Tremendous Success

A banner (right) announcing Pikeville College Homecoming 1980 was designed and made by Sandy Branam, Alumni Director, and put up across Main Street in Pikeville. Representing the junior class on the homecoming court was VICKI DUNCAN, TAMMY VANCE (middle left), and CHARLENE SCOTT (middle right). Charlene was also Miss Pike County 1980.

Grand Marshals (left) for the parade were members of the 1959-60 PC Bears Basketball team. Those honored were Donnis Butcher, who went into pro basketball, John Waddell, R.B. Singleton, Ken Maynard, Charles Francis, Everett Horne, Jr., and Ronnie Francisco.

Bears Take Homecoming Win

The Pikeville College Bears took on KIAC rival Cumberland in the traditional homecoming game on Dec. 14, and moved to 2-0 in the conference, and 4-5 overall with a 101-90 win over the Indians. The entire offensive attack was very sharp as five Bears hit in double figures.

Coach Lyons gave his team instructions (right) during a time out. They found out early that they could work inside against the taller Indians.

Over KIAC Rival Cumberland

Coach Lyons (left) looked on in anticipation as Robert Newsome (below) was at the charity stripe for a two shooter. Newsome scored five on the night.

It was a fine night for forward Mike May (bottom left) as he struck for a nifty earned 15 points. He and teammate David Rowe (bottom right) were under the board to grab a rebound from the Indians.

1980 Queen And Court

The 1980 Homecoming Queen, Susan Allen, and her court were presented during halftime of the basketball game between the Bears and the Cumberland Indians on Dec. 14. The queen was crowned the night before at the dance in the Blue Goose.

Upon the entrance of the queen and her escort (right), Chuck Huffman, she was presented with a scepter by the college's first homecoming queen, Mrs. Patricia Burchett, also the mother of the new queen. A new tradition was begun as the scepter will be passed down to future homecoming queens.

SENIOR ATTENDANTS. Kathi Belcher (bottom left), a Biology major, was escorted by Kenny Fletcher. She was president pro temp of the SGA and a member of the Science Club.

Elaine Blackburn (bottom right) was escorted by Leslie Burns. She majored in Business and was a member of the Phi Beta Lambda.

Attendants

JUNIOR ATTENDANTS. Vicki Duncan (left) from Haysi, VA., was escorted by Steve Newsome, and majored in Elementary Education.

Charlene Scott (bottom left) from Hindeman, KY., was escorted by Kerry Slone. She majored in Office Administration and was Miss Pike County 1980.

Tammy Vance (bottom right), also from Hindeman, held a double major in Biology and Physical Education. She was escorted by Billy Childers.

Attendants

SOPHOMORE ATTENDANTS. Sandy Bowling (top left) from Dorton, KY., was escorted by Grady Coleman. She majored in Psychology and was a member of the cheerleading squad.

Brenda Hamilton (top right) was escorted by Robert Newsome. She majored in Business Management and graduated from McDowell High School.

Jerry Ward (right), also from McDowell, was escorted by David Thomas. Jerri, who was a pre-nursing major, also found time to participate in the SGA and Science Club.

FRESHMEN ATTENDANTS. (Page 97) Jonna Benedict (top left) from Virgie, KY., was a member of the Lady Bear's Basketball team. She was escorted by Lyle Blackburn and majored in Physical Therapy.

Madonna Newsome (top right) from Virgie was a member of the cheerleading squad and majored in pre-medical technology. She was escorted by Danny Thomas.

Patsy Roberts (bottom left), also from Virgie, was escorted by Mike May. She was a member of the cheerleading squad and majored in Business.

Carolyn Salisbury (bottom right) from McDowell majored in Business. She was escorted by Mickey Martin.

Those Hazy, Lazy,

Summer time not only means lazy, hazy, crazy days, but it is also a time when everybody seems to wear less clothes. In cut-offs, Jeff Hershner (right) showed his good looking legs for the whole world to see. Emma Blackburn and Kim DeRossett (bottom) spent those lazy days in the sun working on tans for the summer.

Crazy Days Of Summer

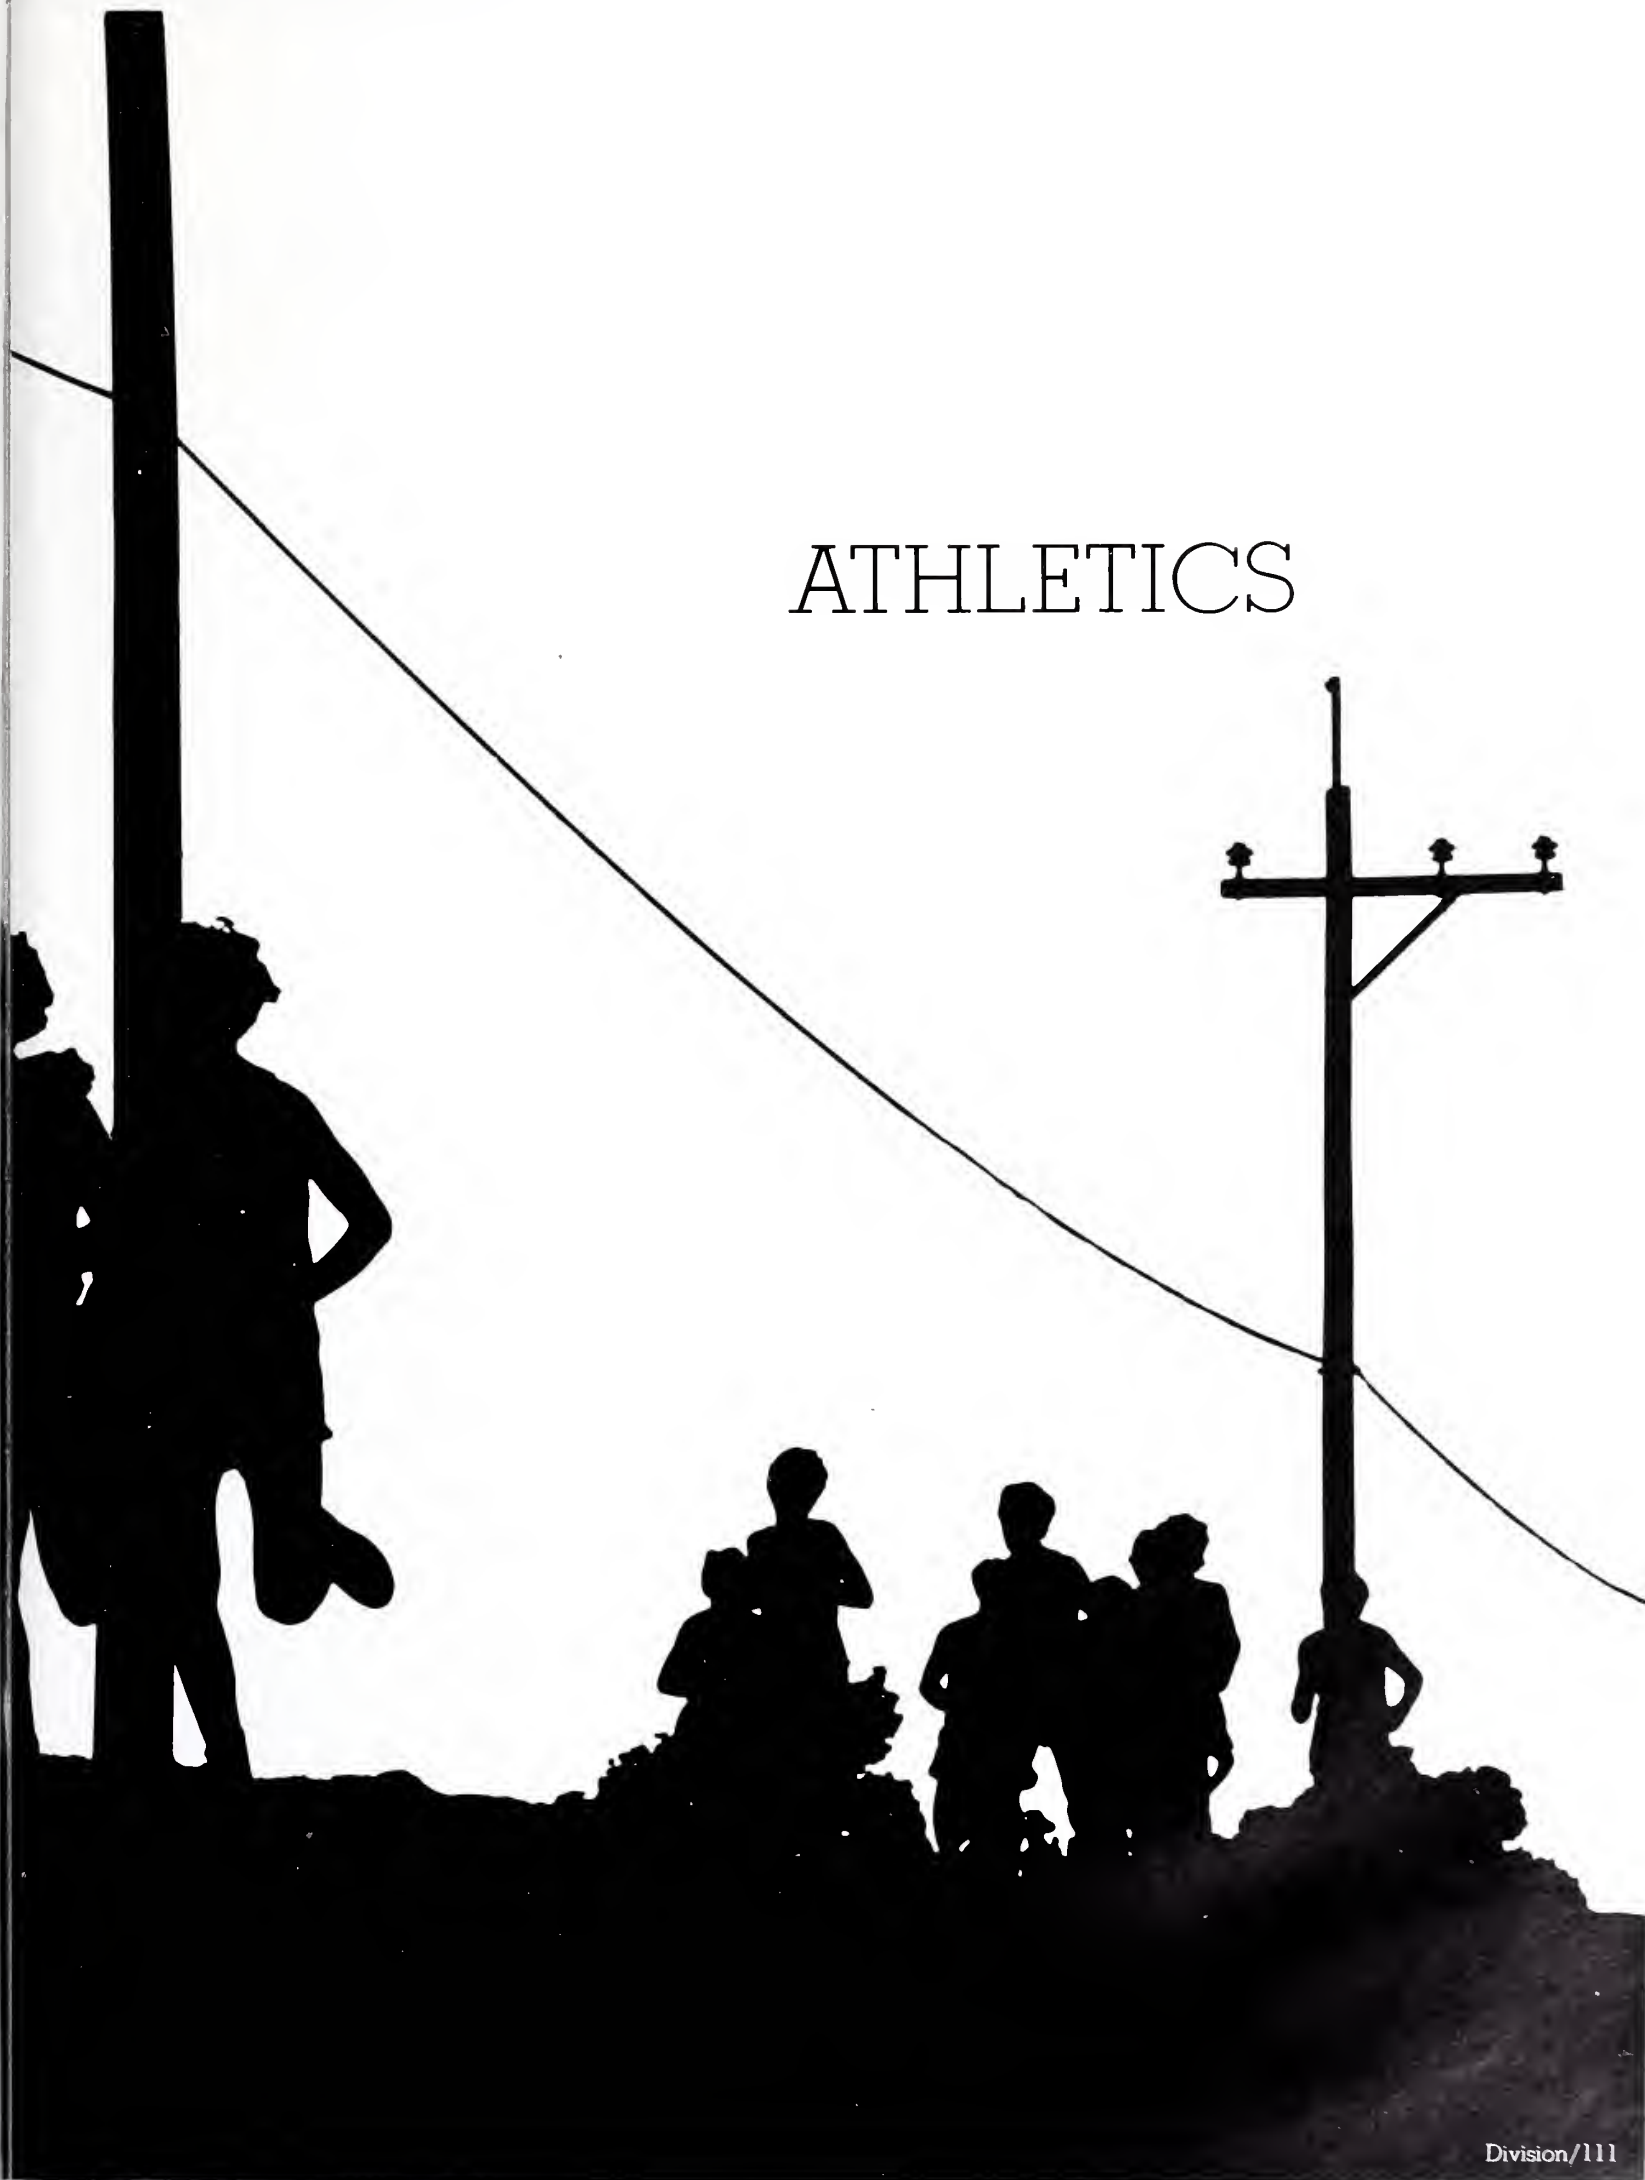

Mike May surprised Patsy Roberts (top) with baby ducks for Easter. Jonna Benedict (left) seemed to stay in one of those crazy moods the last couple of weeks before school ended.

Have you seen this woman? She is wanted for grand theft larceny. Known to some as Jennifer Varney (top, left) and others as "The Seductress," she may be lurking around your house next. Rhonda Barnett enjoyed a free ride to class via Jeff "Frog" Ford (top, right). Mark Johnson and Eugene Sisco (right) spent most of their time outside the Bears Den.

Pikeville Team Goes To New Orleans

This group of guys rang out the year in NEW ORLEANS, Louisiana where they participated in the second annual Michelob Light Bowl Classic sponsored by Michelob Light and Anheuser-Bush, Inc. This four-day marathon tournament attracted more than 60 top collegiate flag football teams from across the nation and proved to be a very rewarding experience to the guys. They came home with an even record of 2 wins and 2 losses: Pikeville 14, Holy Cross 7; Pikeville 0, West Florida 22; Pikeville 19, Southern Tech 15; and the last game, Pikeville 18, Oklahoma 19.

A graduate of Johns Creek High School, Coach Eugene Lyons, earned a basketball scholarship to Morehead State University. There he earned his Bachelor's Degree and Master's Degree in Health, P.E. and Recreation. While playing at Morehead he was chosen All-Conference three straight years, M.V.P. in 1973, and is a member of the unique 1000 point club.

In his first year at Pikeville College he ended the season with a very unexpected record of 13 wins and 14 losses. Last season he was 17 and 12 overall and 10-4 in the conference. The 10-4 mark was good enough to finish tied for 1st in the K.I.A.C.

Seniors Rowe, Nolan Close Our Four

David was selected to the All-Conference and All-District teams his junior and senior years and has started every game over the past four years. Last year he received the Most Rebounds and Best Offensive Player awards. David plans to return next year as a student assistant for the basketball team.

Rick has been known as the "blond bomb" throughout his basketball career at Pikeville College. His quickness and solid defense play made him one of the Bears' star guards.

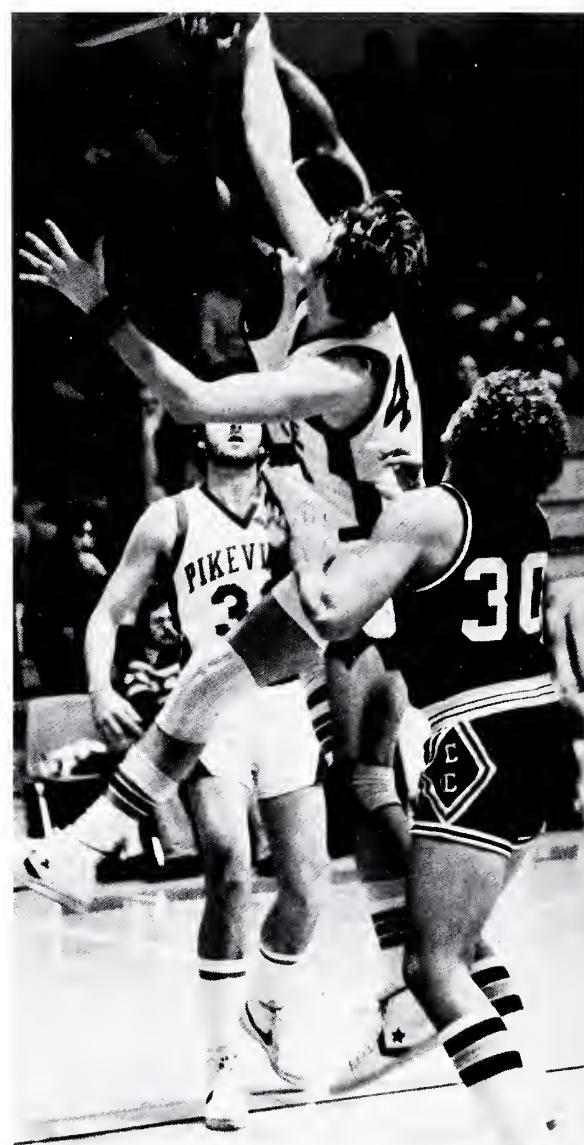

Years Of College Ball; Price Two

Jeff Price (top), a 6'3" guard from Seminole, Florida, played his first two years of college basketball at St. Petersburg Junior College. He then transferred to Pikeville College. Jeff ran the point guard position.

Wesley Case won the Kentucky Intercollegiate Golf Tournament held at Lincoln Homestead State Park in Springfield, Ky., April 23-25.

During the two day tournament, Wesley shot a 74 and 76, the par for the course being 71. Lyle Blackburn and Clay Campbell finished 15th and 18th respectively in the state and breaking all previous school records for tournament play. Other schools participating were Bellermine, Berea, Campbellsville, Cumberland, Centre, Georgetown, Ky. Wesleyan, and Transylvania.

Tennis Team Sponsors

First Annual Spring Tennis Tournament

The Pikeville College Tennis Team sponsored the first annual Spring Tennis Tournament to raise money for uniforms. They also played in team matches at Georgetown, Berea, Clinch Valley and Campbellsville.

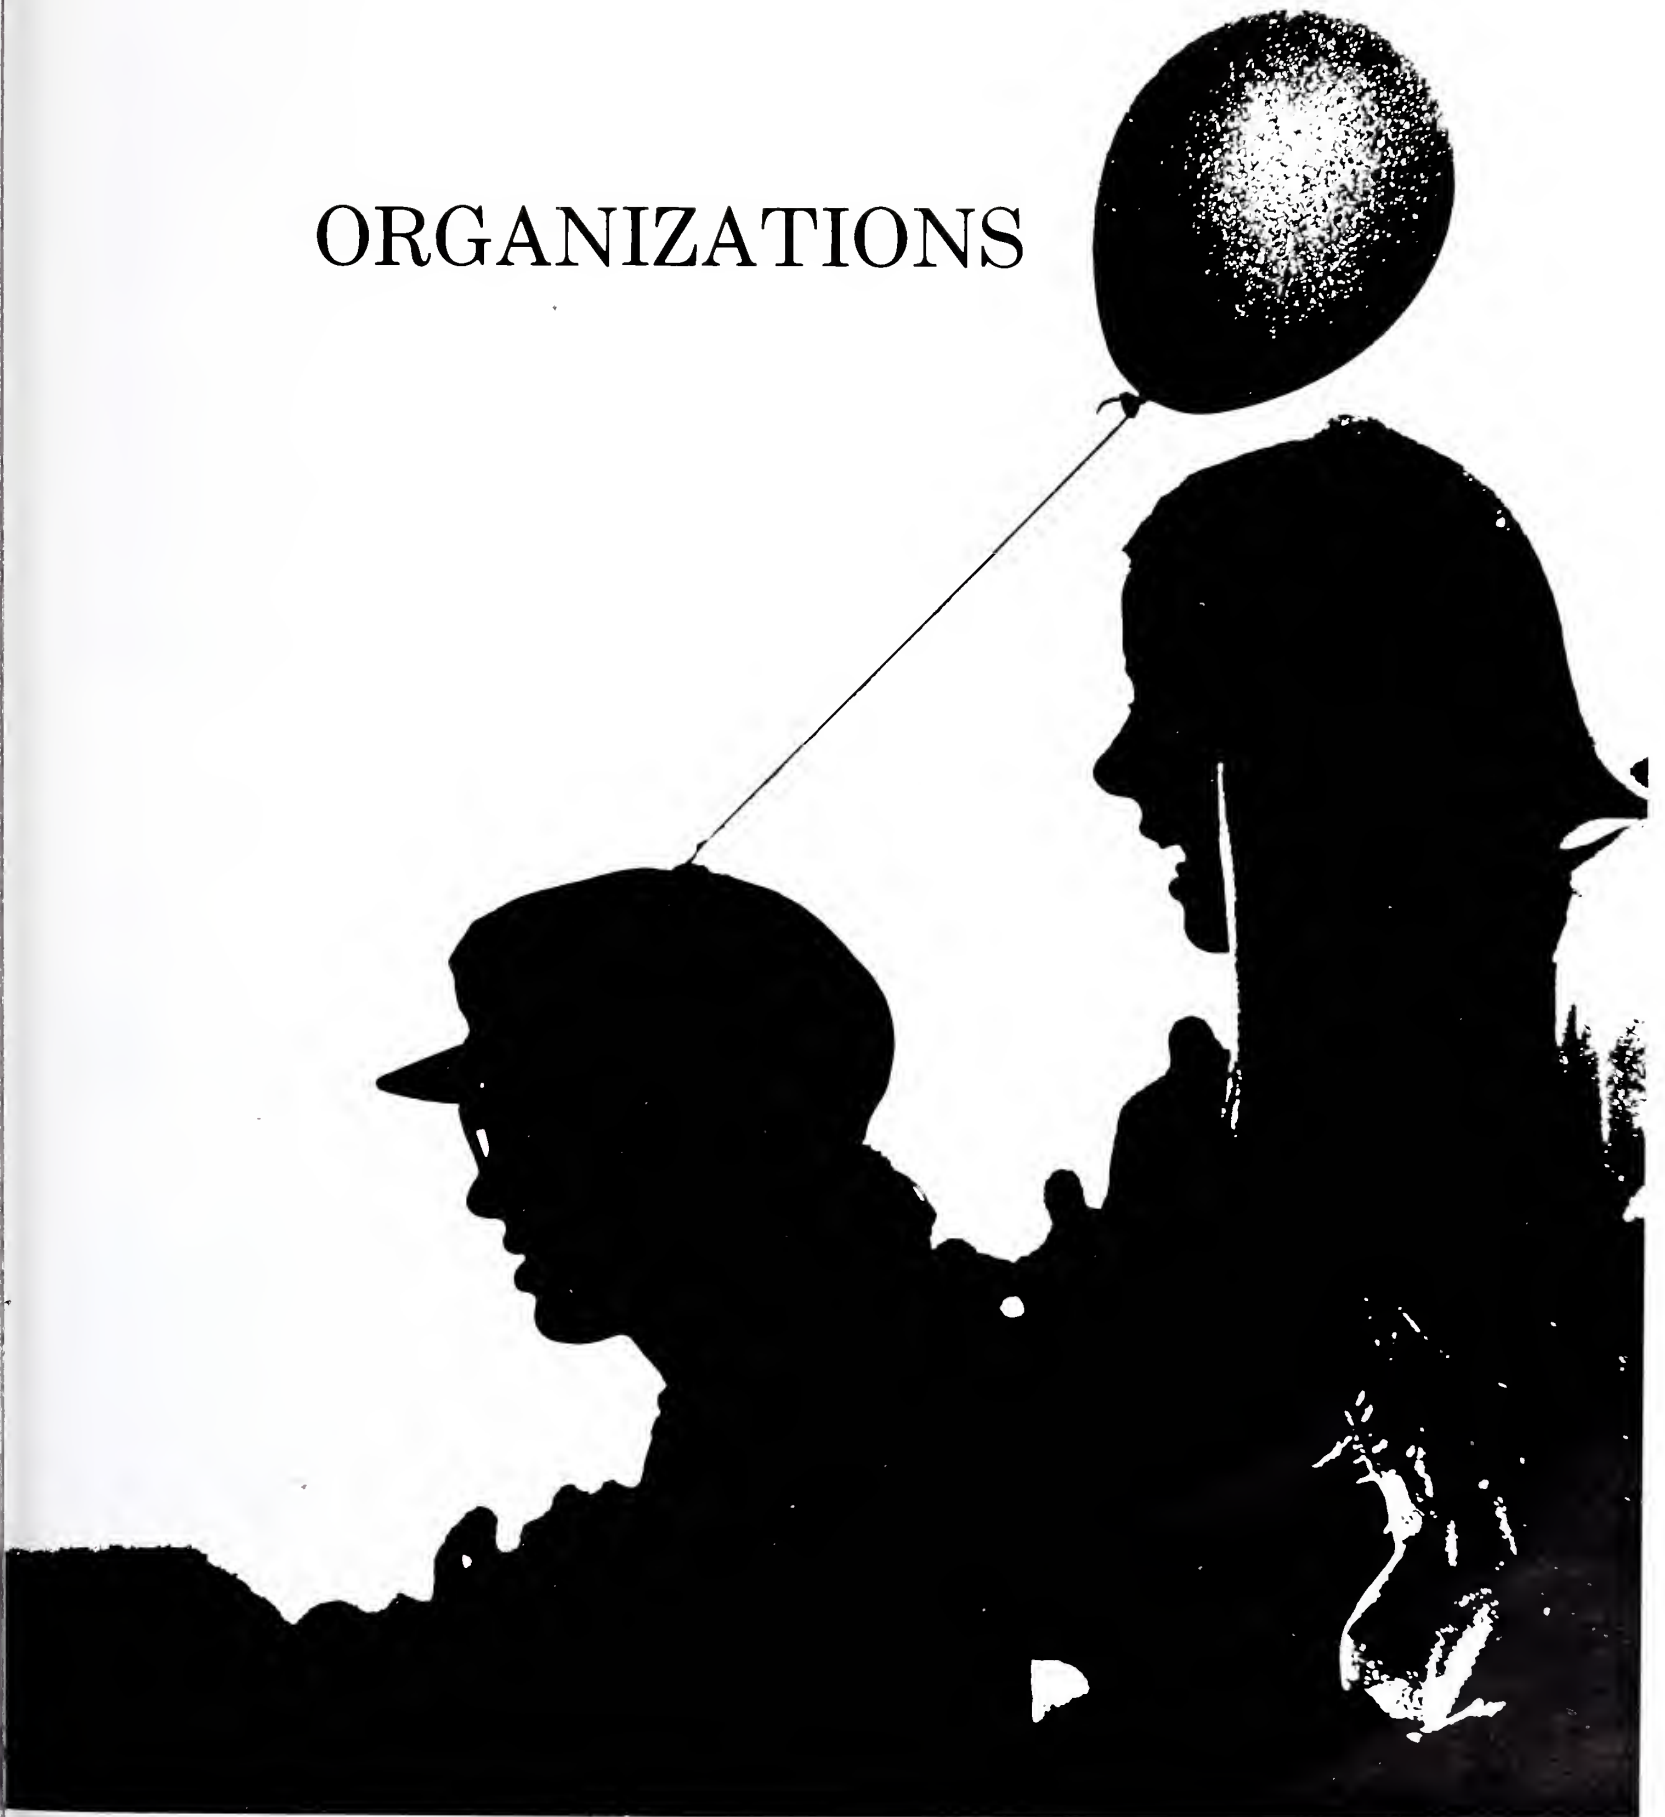

A banquet was held for the team on May 6, at Western Sizzlin to close out the season, and each member was awarded a trophy.

Sophomore Harvey Tackett (right) was instrumental in organizing the 1981 tennis team. He was responsible for scheduling all the matches and spent many long hours planning and organizing the team.

Long To Meet Needs Of Students

The Pikeville College gymnasium was filled to overflowing when Meadow Lark Lemon and the Bucketeers came to town in February. This was just one of many activities sponsored by the SGA.

The Pikeville College Student Government Association has had quite a year! It began last summer when Chuck Huffman and Lyle Blackburn attended a convention in Washington, D.C. to help prepare them for their tremendous job awaiting them.

What followed was a year full of activity-freshmen orientation week, registration, swimming parties, Founders Day activities, pep buses, Alpha Omega Player performances, Homecoming, movies, dances, Meadow Lark Lemon and the Bucketeers, Spring Forma, and The Dazzle Boys in concert at the gym wrapping it all up.

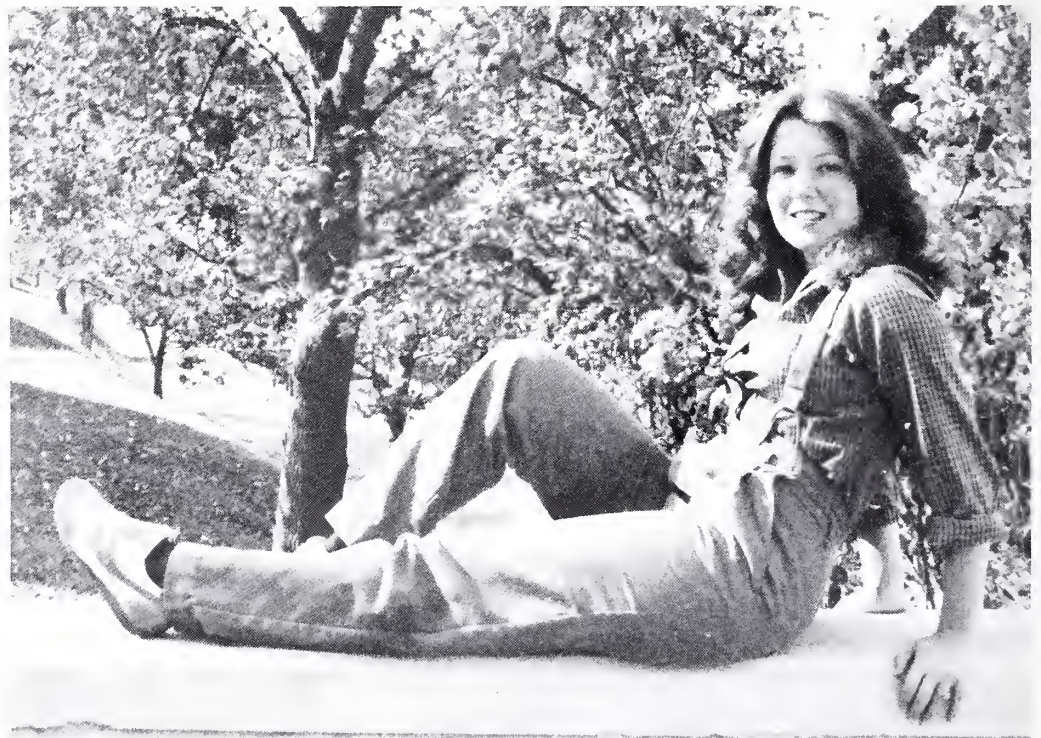

Chuck and Lyle both put in numerous hours on not only planning activities for students, but also on helping students in all ways possible. They were actively involved in the decision making processes at Pikeville College. This included Board of Trustee meetings, Executive Committee meetings, the Food Service program, the Long Range Planning Committee, Voter Registration, and the list goes on and on.

The Pikeville Collge SGA definitely made the 1980-81 school year a great success.

THE RECORD, the student newspaper, expanded from eight pages to twelve during the 1981 spring semester. A student poll revealed that the majority agreed to pay a $2.00 fee during registration that would go toward the financing of the newspaper. In previous years the paper has been solely financed by advertisement which simply wasn't enough. RHONDA BARNETT (top), editor, should be commended for her hard work and dedication. Her long hours spent on the production of THE RECORD have proven to be quite fruitful.

Lyle Blackburn (right), president, was one of fifteen guys who dressed up in women's clothing, wearing make-up, eating marshmallows and peanut butter, dancing in a chorus line in the Den, and wearing a sign around his neck proclaiming "I Am Proud To Be A Circle K Pledge."

Circle K is a self-governing organization affiliated with the Kiwanis Club. Sponsors were faculty member John Lamanca and Kiwanis member Blake Robinson. It has been approximately six years since this club has been reorganized.

Induction into Circle K began at 8:30 a.m. Monday, Oct. 20, 1980. All pledges were required to carry one jar of peanut butter, one large spoon, a shoe shine kit, ten marshmallows, and a spiral note pad. Throughout the week, pledges participated in activities each day. At the end of initiations on Thursday, all pledges were invited to lunch at the Holiday Inn as guests of the Kiwanis Club.

After Six Years

Roundballers Sponsor Tournament

Pikeville College's Roundballers Club sponsored their First Annual Independent Basketball Tournament which was held at the college gymnasium. The two day event drew 11 teams from all over the area, including Dorton, Betsy Layne, McDowell, Paintsville, and Prestonsbury Community College.

The Roundballers awarded trophies to the first and second place teams, individual trophies to a ten-man All-Tournament team, and one Most Valuable Player trophy.

The semi-finals saw Piggly Wiggly defeating Dorton and Bill Crum's team downing Roe Fencing. Bill Crum's team went on to narrowly gain the victory over Piggly Wiggly with a score of 69-67 to claim the first place trophy.

The ten-man All-Tournament team consisted of Kelly Prater, T.J. Coleman, Bill MaJakey, Bill Runyon, Tony Bryant, Connie Bryant, Bryon Wilson, Payne Olinger, Steve Silvers, and Howard West.

Larry West received the MVP trophy after racking up 83 points in four games.

Referees for the tournament were Steve Newsome, Greg Newsome, and Ronnie Akers.

Tournament director David Thomas commented, "Although no college basketball players participated, there was still a lot of talent in the tournament. We were well pleased with the turnout of the teams and spectators. We would also like to congratulate all the teams on their good sportsmanship."

Roundballers president David Rowe concluded, "I think everyone enjoyed themselves and had a great time. We are looking forward to having another tournament next year, possibly in the fall, and having even better competition."

PBL Receives "Big Drop Award"

The Phi Beta Lambda Business Club started off the year by receiving "The Big Drop Award" for its outstanding contributions during the bloodmobile visit to the college on Sept. 22. This year a record amount of 143 pints of blood was received by donors.

The installation of officers for the 1980-81 year followed on Nov. 2 in the Gold Room at the college with Paul Patton, chairman of the executive committee of the college's board of trustees, giving the welcoming address. Brenda Hicks, sponsor, was mistress of ceremonies and Pam Lail, sponsor, gave the PBL creed. The Honor District Judge, presided over the installation of officers.

The two-day state convention of Phi Beta Lambda was held Feb. 26, 1981, in Louisville. Those students who participated in various competitions and received awards were: Pat Fritz-first place Ms. Future Business Executive, Chuck Huffman-third place Mr. Future Business Executive, Janice Hurt-second place Business Ad., Judy Stewardson-fifth place Marketing, Kevin Stumbo-fifth place Management.

Dr. Hall Challenges Graduating

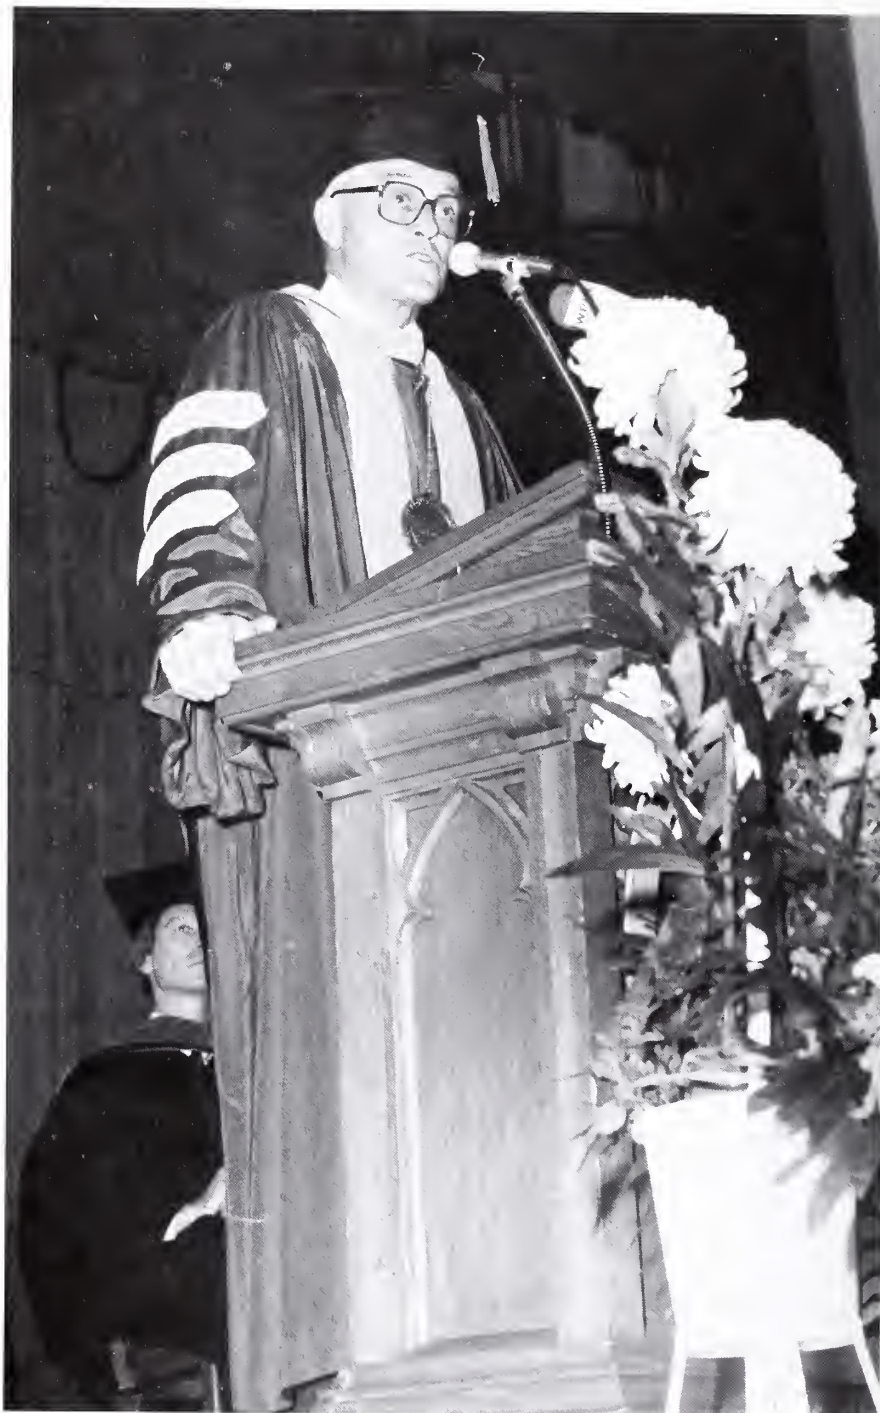

Dr. Jackson O. Hall, president of Pikeville College, addressed 101 graduating seniors during commencement exercises in Faith Chapel at 2 p.m., Sunday, May 17.

In his address, Hall stressed the change the United States is going through. "We are at what I feel is a turning point of landmark proportion in the history of our nation. Our government, which has gradually become controlled by private interest groups, is grappling with the proposed reduction in social programs of enormous proportions. If enacted, as it has been, for the most part, there will occur a rippling effect across our entire land that will touch everybody, albeit some more than others."

Dr. Hall wanted all graduates to be aware of what obstacles they would encounter in the future, and said, "There is going to be human dislocation-there are going to be people who have bona fide needs that will go unmet-until people, you and I, look around and see this dislocation; until people, you and I, say to ourselves, we can help, we can make a difference . . . So as we embark on a new era we must rebuild our national pride, rebuild our stagnating economy and reposition this nation into a role of world leadership."

His challenge to the graduating class, quoted from William Danforth's book I DARE YOU, was to "stand tall, continue learning, exemplify courage in your daily life, and to follow the teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ. I dare you to accept this challenge . . . to go forward with the awareness that to do so will produce anxiety and doubt; and to know that when you say 'Damn the torpedoes, full steam ahead,' you will have grown yet another notch."

Dr. Hall concluded by saying, "So, I dare you to stretch, to achieve to your potential, to commit your life, your skill and yes, your resources, to an improvement of the human condition around you."

DR. JACKSON O. HALL

Class To Accept His Dare

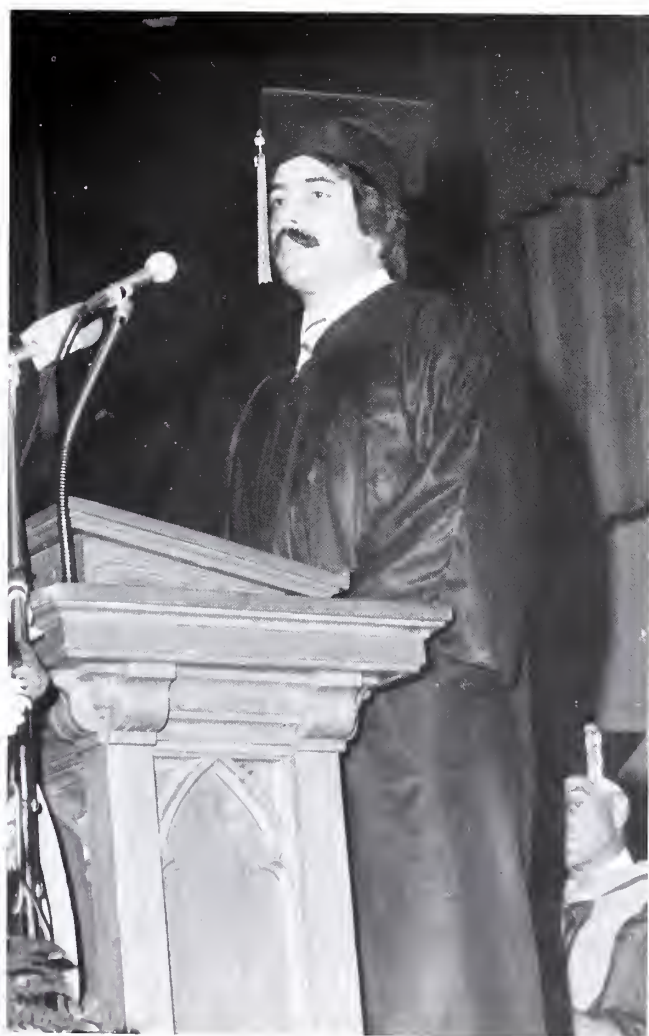

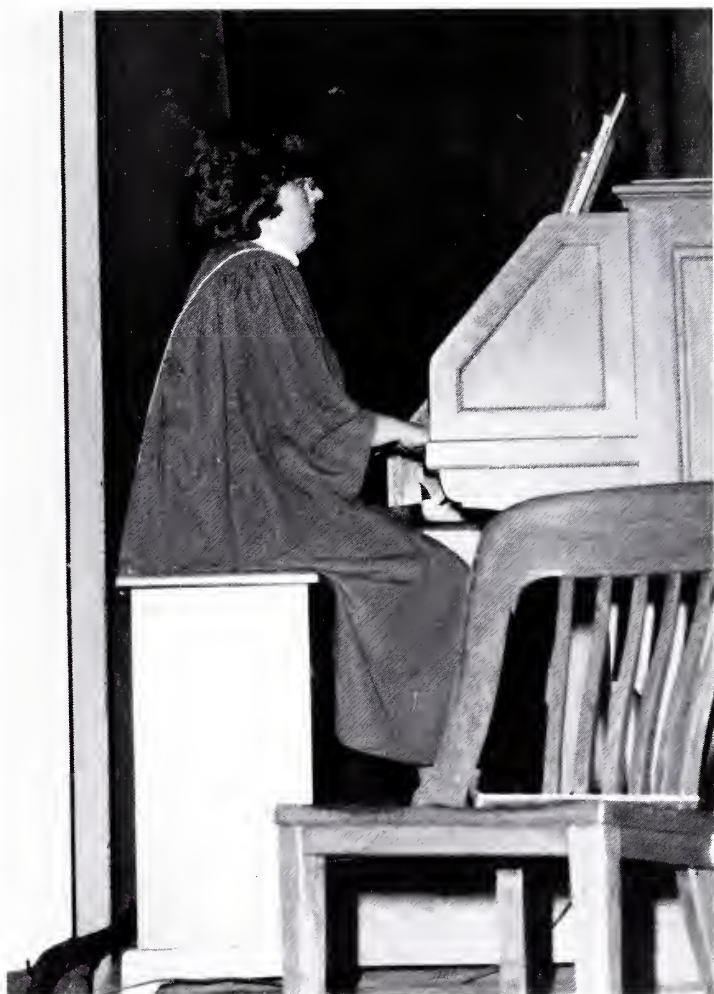

The invocation was given by Charles B. Chrisman (above), Chairman of the Board of Trustees, following the academic procession with the Pikeville College Chorale singing "Come Holy Ghost (Veni Creator)." Jeffrey Sandborg directed.

Chuck Huffman (left), Student Government Association president, greeted the graduating class, their family and friends, along with the faculty and administration.

The highest student awards and the outstanding senior award were presented during the graduating exercises. Debra Webb of Varney was presented the Dr. W.C. Condit award for attaining the highest scholastic standing over her entire college career. She was an elementary education major with a 3.97 grade point average.

Ernestine Ray of Pikeville, an English and sociology major with a 3.86 grade point average, was presented the Margaret E. Record award for achieving the second highest scholastic standing over her college career. The 1981 Outstanding Senior, selected on achievement and services, was Susan Allen of Pikeville.

Brenda Hicks and Virgil Turner were awarded the William Wade and Helen Record Walker Award for Teaching Excellence during commencement exercises. Board of Trustee member George Walker established the endowment fund in 1976 in honor of his parents, lifelong supporters of Pikeville College.

Brenda, assistant professor of business administration, was awarded the first place award of $1500. After obtaining her masters in business education from Eastern Kentucky University, she came to Pikeville College in 1978. Brenda has given a great deal of her time to the students at Pikeville College. She was responsible for helping to create a chapter of Phi Beta Lambda, is co-sponsor of the year-book, and traveled with the cheerleaders. Virgil Turner, associate professor of political science, received the second place award of $1000. He earned a bachelor's degree from Berea College in 1931 and a master's degree from the University of Kentucky and Duke University Law School. He is also a member of the American Kentucky Bar Associations. One of Turner's greatest contributions to Pikeville College has been advising pre-law students. Over 70 PC students have been accepted into law schools since he came to the college in 1964. Turner retired at the end of the spring term.

Sandy Bowling Kentucky Mt. Laurel Candidate

Each year in the spring the hills of Eastern Kentucky are covered with blooms of Mountain Laurel and the beauty of this season caused Kentuckians to establish a festival in celebration.

Young women from Kentucky colleges gather in Pineville to compete for the title of queen of the Mountain Laurel Festival.

Sandy Kay Bowling, a 20-year-old sophomore psychology major, represented Pikeville College in the festival's 50th celebration, May 28-31.

A 5'3" blue-eyed brunette, Sandy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thadeus Bowling of Dorton. She was escorted at the festival by Grady Coleman.

The production of a yearbook is by no means an easy job. Many long hours, combined with personal sacrifice and dedication are involved. A limited staff increased our work load and made our job much more difficult. However, we got the job done.

We have tried to capture the 1980-81 school year at Pikeville College in hopes that years from now students, faculty and administration will look back on this year with many fond memories.

There are several people whose names can in no way go unmentioned. A special thank you goes to our sponsors, Brenda Hicks and Marian Yarus. It seems everytime we needed them they were there. Also, thank you Jack Tester, our photographer from Olin Mills.

Enough can't be said about Tom Brush, our yearbook representative. He was constantly there to give advice and encouragement.

No words can express our gratitude to Rhonda Barnett, student photographer. Without her there couldn't have been a yearbook. She was also more than willing to let us use her copy from the student newspaper, THE RECORD. Thank you, Rhonda, for everything.

We hope you enjoy this yearbook as much as we have enjoyed compiling it for you.
